THE BOSS

Truly. The Boss

You've already got the boss ideas, now get the boss look. Truly. follows your cues as you sit and as you move. The responsively-engineered TruFit™ Polyback system provides patent-pending working support, letting you focus your thoughts on conquering your work day, one email at a time!

Truly. Conference

Minds, meet Comfort. Comfort, meet Results. When a subtle tool like your chair has got your back, there's really no telling what you might accomplish. Padded upholstered backrests. Supportive, articulating headrests. Crisp, aluminum-bodied loop arms. It's all about the small victories along the way when you're dealing with the battlefield of the minds.

Truly. Productive

Models: TY608 (left, center), TY67b8 (right) Arms: JR69
Polyback: Nitro Black
Finish: Black Finish (base, cylinder & yoke)
Seat: Designtex Hashtag, Chalkboard

Isn't the next Big Thing already here? Truly. boldly offers what other high end, technical backrest chairs seemingly can't. Raise your game—and your back height—to new levels while also adjusting your lumbar region's firmness through Truly.'s lively, bowable polyback design.

TruFit™ Back System

The responsively-engineered TruFit™ Polyback system provides patent-pending working support. The perforated design is engineered to respond and recover, channeling flex and support to the areas that need it.

Lumbar Adjustment

A cable-driven lumbar area tension adjustment allows for a generous lumbar support curve for multiple body types. The lumbar adjustment knob turns to fine tune the amount of support received.

Backrest Adjustment

The back height adjusts and allows you to set the back to your preferred height with 4.2" of vertical back adjustment and 9 different positions.

Stool Options

Counter-height work surface seating with adjustable or fixed foot rests available.
